

Plaque-Away Lab:

- I. Title: use keywords
 - II. Abstract: very short, everything you found
 - III. Introduction: background information
 - IV. Materials and Methods: past tense; specific; (like a cooking recipe)
 - V. Results: just the data, no opinions, raw data plus tables plus graphs (line graph vs. bar graph)
 - VI. Discussion: explain the data
 - VII. Conclusions: keep it brief
 - VIII. Literature cited: the bibliography, can be textbooks or articles, any source of info

The following are examples of a 'bar-graph' and a 'line-graph':
